tien. P. G. T. Beauregard, who will be re membered by the Bull-Runners as the chap wh made them get up and dust on a certain memor able occasion, urges all the late "boys is gray" to give the honest old farmer-sage of Chappaqua a hearty support.

Chappaqua a hearty support.

Geo. H. Pendleton, has declared again privately that he rejoices in the ananimity of the Democratic popular endorsement of Greeley and Brown. This he believes to be the only hope of the Democratic party, or of personal liberty. A Liberal Republican President and a Democratic Congress will save the country. There is a wide sulit among the Republicans of Mississippi. Ex-tox. Alcora, Gov. Powers, and Congressman Morphis—all head-devils in the late Radical party—have announced their intention to support, and stump that State for, treeley and Brown. As a matter of course these men will vote a large number of the Mississippi niggers against Ciysses.
